

INTEGRATING GENDER IN SCIENCE

"Challenges of diversity in Europe: Mobilizing talents for research grant success"

By Alison Woodward (Ph.D. University of California, Berkeley), Research Professor at the Free University of Brussels (VUB) and Co-Director of RHEA, the Center for Gender Studies and Diversity Research.

The lecture will discuss the extent to which issues of gender and national diversity are being taken into account by major funders in the European research area, and how it can affect research innovation.

Followed by a round table with:

- Dr. Carole Clair Willi, Physician (CHUV & UNIL)
- Prof. Farinaz Fassa, Sociologist (UNIL & NCCR LIVES)
- Prof. em. René Levy, Sociologist (UNIL)
- Damien Michelet, Coordinator PlaGe (UNIL)

Date: September 13, 2017

Time: 12:00 to 13:30

Place: UNIL Géopolis, room 1620

Programme and registration:

lives-nccr.ch/en/gender_2017

Contacts and information:

equality@lives-nccr.ch