Abstract Guidelines and Submission

Date: 17th May 2019, 08:30-18.00

Place: CHUV, Auditoire Charlotte Olivier, Rue du Bugnon 46, 1011 Lausanne

Registration : 50 CHF (30 CHF students) Opening soon

Program: Attached

Submission for Abstracts : Now Open – 29th March

Language: English

Timing: Please respect the allocated time for presentations.

SHORT PRESENTATIONS (5 mins presentation, 5 mins questions)

The talk can be a taster of your research, and you can refer to posters (by number) that will be presented (by your group members) in poster sessions or relate to one particular study (max: 8 slides). Talks are open to all disciplines and all levels of researcher. The aim of this series of talks is to showcase the breadth and quality of the ongoing state of the art research on perinatal mental health in Switzerland. Abstracts demonstrating innovative methodology, interdisciplinarity, or clinical relevance will be given priority for selection for a short presentation.

FLASH PRESENTATIONS (3 mins presentation, 2 mins questions)

Presenters should summarise their research in a short, sharp, accessible manner; be aware conference day attendees will be from a variety of disciplines and professions (max: 3 slides). As with the talks, posters related to the content can be referred to on the slides or within the flash presentation.

POSTERS

All attendees (from all career levels) should submit at least one abstract for a poster as part of the knowledge transfer and networking elements of the conference day.

Guidelines for Submission of Abstracts

- The abstract should be written in English.
- The content should be related to perinatal mental health, but the discipline, methodology etc. is open.
- The abstract should provide the background, the methods, the results (if available) and a discussion of the research project in a maximum of 300 words.
- No limitation on posters/talks already presented at international conferences (please indicate conference on form).
- Complete the attached form and send to: Suzannah.Ravenscroft@Chuv.ch
