Methods and research meetings

Les rencontres méthodes et recherche offrent un espace de discussion et de présentations centrées principalement sur des recherches thématiques - quantitatives ou qualitatives - abordant des questions méthodologiques particulières et/ou innovantes.

The methods and research meetings are a discussion platform where talks cover substantive research raising interesting methodological questions (quantitative or qualitative), research focusing on methodological issues, or discussions on new methodological approaches.

Les rencontres sont ouvertes à toutes personnes intéressées aux méthodes de recherche en sciences sociales. Aucune inscription n'est nécessaire.

The meetings are open for everyone interested in social science research methods. No need to enrol.
