

After Law

mobilization, injustice, and confrontation in the post-juristocratic transition

Monday, June 6, 2022

09:30 Welcome and introduction

Mark Goodale (University of Lausanne, Unil) &
Olaf Zenker (Martin Luther University Halle-Wittenberg)

SESSION 1: THE LAWS OF NEOLIBERALISM AND THE TEMPORALITIES OF RESISTANCE

11:00 Andrea Freeman (University of Hawai'i)

Post-racial Neoliberal Food Oppression

14:30 Lynette Chua (National University of Singapore)

Beyond Here Lies Somethin': Law in Three Narratives

Tuesday, June 7, 2022

SESSION 2: THE SEMBLANCE OF JURISTOCRACY & THE LIMITS OF THE LAW

09:00 Matthew Canfield (University of Leiden)

Re-presenting Rights: Food Sovereignty and the Struggle for Postliberal Democratic Governance

11:00 Penelope Anthias (Durham University)

!Tariquía no se toca! Politics, space and the limits of law at Bolivia's extractive frontier

14:30 Mark Goodale (University of Lausanne)

Translocal Dilemmas: Social Mobilization and Justice-Seeking Beyond the Boundaries of Law

Wednesday, June 8, 2022

SESSION 3: TRANSFORMATIVE MODALITIES BEYOND THE LAW

09:00 Arzoo Osanloo (University of Washington)

The Enduring Logic of Mercy: Humanitarianism's Eclipse of Human Rights

11:00 Kamari Maxine Clarke (University of Toronto and UCLA)

Beyond Legality: Early Warning Early Response Mobilizations

14:30 Rachel Sieder (Center for Research and Graduate Studies in Social Anthropology – CIESAS)

The Post-judicialization of Politics

Thursday, June 9, 2022

SESSION 4: LAW'S TRANSFORMATIONS AFTER LAW

09:00 Olaf Zenker (Martin Luther University Halle-Wittenberg)

Transformative Constitutionalism after Law? Land Reform, Expropriation without Compensation and the Shifting Legal Cultures of Post-apartheid South Africa

11:00 Nitzan Shoshan (El Colegio de México)

Law and the Afterlives of Utopia: Excavating the Past for Alternative Futures in Berlin's Housing Movement

14:30 Ron Niezen (McGill University)

The Public Face of Injustice: Victim-Perpetrator Binaries and State Impunity in the Central Sahara

Friday, June 10, 2022

AFTER LAW: MOBILIZATION, INJUSTICE, AND CONFRONTATION IN THE POST-JURISTOCRATIC TRANSITION

09:00 Concluding Discussion

11:00 Next Steps and Future Plans

June 6 – June 10, 2022

University of Lausanne
Bâtiment IDHEAP
Room 4

Metro Line M1 – UNIL-Mouline station

Informations: mark.goodale@unil.ch

PUBLIC WELCOME

