

Image: Midland Bank. Report and accounts. December 1970, p. 22-23

9 décembre 2022

towards an alternative history of banking internationalization:
switzerland and global networks (19th-20th centuries)
*pour une histoire alternative de l'internationalisation bancaire:
la suisse et les réseaux mondiaux (19^e-20^e siècles)*

Université de Lausanne, Anthropole, salle 3148

09h30-09h40

Introduction

09h40-10h50

Maria Stella Chiaruttini (Universität Wien):

The internationalisation of Piedmontese finance during the Risorgimento

Marco Molteni (University of Oxford):

Opening the black box of foreign correspondent banking: the case of Banca Commerciale Italiana in the 20th century

Comment by Malik Mazbouri and discussion

11h10-12h20

Alexis Drach (Université Paris 8):

Cooperation in banking internationalization: the case of European banking clubs

Emmanuel Murlon-Druol (European University Institute):

Mapping International and national banking centres since the 1970s

Comment by Thibaud Giddey and discussion

14h00-14h45

Pedro Araujo (Université de Fribourg):

Studying International Bankers: A Socio-historical and Contemporary Perspective

Comment by Stéphanie Ginalschi and discussion

15h05-16h15

Arthur Michelet (Université de Lausanne):

Adapting strategies or changing banking models? Analysing the multinationalisation of Swiss big banks (1966-2000)

Pietro Nosetti (chercheur indépendant):

La dimension internationale du secteur bancaire tessinois au XIX et XX siècles

Comment by Sandra Bott and discussion

16h15-16h30

Concluding remarks